

Commercial Aviation Pressure Regulating Coupler

353GF Pressure Regulating Coupler

Product Features and Benefits

- EI Specification 1584 Second Edition Compliant
- Pneumatic or Hydraulic Deadman Options
- Accurate Nozzle Pressure Regulation
- Excellent Surge Pressure Control
- Deadman and Fuel Sense Connections Conveniently Located
- Bleed Valve(s) supplied, on the Pilot Block
- Standard Folding Operating Lever
- Three-Year Warranty

Rigorous Testing • Hands-On Training • Exceptional Support

- More than 15 years serving the Commercial Aviation Ground Fueling Industry; Over 70 years serving US Military Aviation
- Privately held company committed to maintaining extensive product inventory for urgent customer requirements
- All Pressure Couplers are pressure and flow tested with a fluid that has the same specific gravity of jet fuel, performed at our Type III Fuel Delivery System testing facility
- Comprehensive product training available at our onsite training center in Southern California
- Worldwide support provided by service personnel with decades of aviation fueling experience

Typical Installations

In Stock & Ready to Ship

I-353GF (R-02/2017)